

Military Expertise: “Samaritan” Video CASE EX

Facilitator: This is a three-part video. Watch each part, asking the associated questions after the correct segment. Remember that LT Leugers volunteered to share this story and is a dedicated Soldier proudly serving in our profession.

Video summary: LT Leugers uses her Military Expertise in order to provide medical aid to an Iraqi Army Soldier. Despite the disdain from some folks on the FOB, LT Leugers chose to bring the Iraqi Soldier onto the FOB to provide him treatment. Her actions emphasize the professional concepts of Competence, Character, and Commitment.

Three Parts: length: 1:52, 1:39, 1:35

Notes:

Part 1/Introduction

- What is the duty of an Army professional in this position?
 - As an Army professional, what would you do?
- How does this fit within the moral-ethical field? How does the Army Ethic help professionals make decisions?
- What examples do you see of “Military Technical”, “Political Cultural” fields of knowledge?

Part 2/Conclusion 1

- What does LT Leugers’ decision say about her character?
- Share how her decision demonstrated dedication to the Army Values and Ethic.

Part 3/Conclusion 2

- How did LT Leugers’ decisions demonstrate competence and expertise?
 - What field of expert knowledge did LT Leugers use?
- Share how LT Leugers demonstrated Military Expertise.
 - Why did LT Leugers seek guidance from her HQ? What level of supervision can a professional expect while operating under the philosophy of mission command?
- At what stage did LT Leugers make a discretionary judgment (make an ethical decision) as an expert and Army professional?